INDEX TO VOLUME XX

Academic Achievement of Honor Entrance Scholarship Holders in The College of the University of Chicago 1941-42 and 1942-43, the, 326-349

Active and Nonactive Student in Physical Education, selected activities characteristic of the, 350-366

Adult Education After the War, 489-491

Alderman, William E.: The Vitality and Responsibility of Liberal Education, 238-248

Available Sources of Teachers and What We Have Done to Explore Them, 76-84

Army Education Program for Inactive Theatres, 439-442

Berg, Irwin A., Larsen, Robert P., and Gilbert, William M.: Scholastic Achievement of Students Entering College from the Lowest Quarter of Their High School Graduating Classes, 53-59

Blewett, Edward Y.: A Program for the Education of Returning Veterans, 500-508

Book Reviews, 113-121, 254-255, 401-413, 551-562

British Universities in War Time, the, 5-10

Brown, Francis J.: Higher Education Looks Beyond V-E Day, 457-467

Brown, Kenneth I.: Universal Military Training and Education, 184-186

Bunker, Herbert: Selected Activities Characteristic of the Active and Nonactive Student in Physical Education, 350-366

Canada, Higher Education in, 468-488

College Education after the War, 36-52

Colleges and the War Effort, the, 123-133, 258-262, 418-422

Compulsory Military Training—A Symposium, 184-202

Computational Weaknesses of College Freshman, 367-382

Davis, Harold E.: Permanent Bases of Inter-American Education, 286-292

Detchen, Lily: Appraisal of Military Training and Experience: Continuation Report, 231-237

Directory of Regional Associations, 144-146, 274-275, 432-433, 589-590

Editorial Comment, 106-112, 249-253, 396-400, 544-550

Elder, Harry E.: Available Sources of Teachers and What We Have Done to Explore Them, 76-84

Employment Service, 169, 276, 434, 591

Enrollment Figures, a new slant on, 225-230

Entrance and Placement Tests at the University of Chicago, a report on the use of, 383-388

Evaluation of Educational Experiences in the Armed Services, the guide to, 281-285

Evans, Bergen: A New Program in the Liberal Arts, 492-499

Fisher, Edgar J.: The Present Challenge to Increase Intercultural Activity, 11-23

Foreign Languages for Peace, 293-312

Freeman, Stephen A.: Foreign Languages for Peace, 293-312

Gaskill, William J.: Adult Education After the War, 489-491

Gladfelter, Millard E.: An Analysis of Reading and English Changes That Occur During the Freshman Year in College, 527-543

Glenn, Sidney E.: The War Veteran at Illinois, 217-221

Guiler, W. S.: Spelling at the College Level, 96-105. Computational Weaknesses of College Freshman, 367-382

Hetherington, Sir Hector: The British Universities in Wartime, 5-10

Higher Education Looks Beyond V-E Day, 457-467

Hilts, Elizabeth A.: The Academic Achievement of Honor Entrance Scholarship Holders in The College of the University of Chicago, 1941-42, and 1942-43, 326-349
Hines, Brigadier General Frank T.: Veterans and the Universities, 175-183
Hoffman, William S.: A New Slant on Enrollment Figures, 225-230
Hyink, Bernard L.: The Student Work Program of the National Youth Administration: a Study in Public Administration, 509-519

Instruction for Negroes, future possibilities for graduate and professional, 60-69
Inter-American Education, permanent bases of, 286-292
Intercultural Activity, the present challenge to increase, 11-23
In the Journals, 122, 256-257, 414, 563-567
In the Mail, 415-417, 568-571
In the Office, 134-136
Liberal Arts, a New Program in, 492-499
Liberal Education, the vitality and responsibility of, 238-248

McGrath, Earl J.: College Education after the War, 36-52
McLane, Charles W.: Army Education Program for Inactive Theatres, 439-442
Membership List of the American Association of Collegiate Registrars, 147-168
Military Training and Experience: appraisal of, Continuation Report, 231-237
Muirhead, James: Vocational Rehabilitation for Disabled War Veterans, 208-216

National Roster of Scientific and Specialized Personnel, the, 452-456
Negroes, Future Possibilities of Graduate and Professional Instruction for, 60-69
Neville, K. P. R.: Higher Education in Canada, 468-488
New Program in the Liberal Arts, a, 492-499
N.Y.A., the Student Work Program of: a Study in Public Administration, 509-519

Orientation, a more functional approach to, 222-224

Physical Education Does Educate, 85-95
Physical Education, Active and Nonactive students in, 350-366
Placement Tests as a Means of Determining Advanced Standing at the University of Chicago, 520-526
Post-Hostilities Educational Program, see McLane, Charles W.
Post-War Planning, some specific educational problems in, 24-35
Problems in American Colleges and Universities, selected current, 389-395
Program for the Education of Returning Veterans, A, 500-508
Psychological Problem of the Discharged Veteran, the 443-451

Question Box, the, 263

Reading and English Changes That Occur During the Freshman Year, an Analysis of, 527-543
Rehabilitation for Disabled War Veterans, vocational, 208-216
Reported to Us, 137-143, 264-273, 423-431, 572-577
Rochelle, Charles E.: Future Possibilities for Graduate and Professional Instruction for Negroes, 60-69
Rolfe, Walter T.: The Service Man Returns to the University of Texas, 313-325

Service Man Returns to the University of Texas, the, 313-325
Scholastic Achievement of Students Entering College from the Lowest Quarter of Their High School Graduating classes, 53-59

Scores and Grades of College Freshmen, old and new college board, 70-75
Shank, Donald J.: Compulsory Military Training, 196-202
Sources of Teachers, Available, and what we have done to explore them, 76-84
Spelling at the College Level, 96-105
Student Work Program of the National Youth Administration, 509-519

Tenney, Luman H.: Psychological Problem of the Discharged Veteran, 443-451
Tuttle, G. P. and Hastings, J. T.: The Guide to Evaluation of Educational Experiences in the Armed Services, 281-285
Tyler, Ralph W.: Placement Tests as a Means of Determining Advanced Standing at the University of Chicago, 520-526

Veteran, The:
At Illinois, 217-221
At the University of Texas, 313-325
Program for the Education of Returning, 500-508
Psychological Problem of the Discharged, 443-451
Veterans and the Universities, 175-183

War Veteran at Illinois, the, 217-221
Watson, Donald R.: A More Functional Approach to Orientation, 222-224
Weber, Christian O.: Old and New College Board Scores and Grades of College Freshman, 70-75
Weir, LeRoy M.: Physical Education Does Educate, 85-95
Wickenden, William E.: Compulsory Training and Technological Preparedness, 193-196
Wickhem, Valerie C.: A Report on the Use of Entrance and Placement Tests at the University of Chicago, 383-388
Wilkins, Ernest H.: National Needs and National Service, 186-192
Willey, Malcolm M.: Some Specific Educational Problems in Post-War Planning, 24-35
Williams, Robert L.: Selected Current Problems in American Colleges and Universities, 389-395
Works, George A.: The National Roster of Scientific and Specialized Personnel, 452-456